Resource Packs are a way to collect and organize Britannica School content around any topic of your choice! Try using them to support classroom discussions, or as starting points for inquiry or research projects.

Once you have created your My Britannica account, you can create Resource Packs! Simply click on the green button and enter the name of your resource pack.

Add content to your resource pack by clicking on the star in the search results. Click on the curved arrow in the article to add to My Britannica, email to another user, or add to Google Classroom.

Add notes and share your pack with students and teachers.

Edit your pack and add your own documents.

Share your Resource Packs
An easy-to-follow format makes it a snap to create and share lessons using Britannica School. Teachers can convert any resource pack to a Lesson Plan.

Plug in the standard type, grade level, and subject area to find Britannica resources that align with your needs.
