Part III: Issues of Today, Visions of Tomorrow

Read the concerns of such luminaries as:

- Martin Scorsese on film preservation
- Garry Kasparov on artificial intelligence and Russia
- The Archbishop of Canterbury on Christendom
- U.S. Secretary of State Madeleine Albright on the world scene
- U.S. Secretary of State James Baker on world stability
- Henry Louis Gates, Jr., on the Confederate past
- Lewis Lapham on “typographical man”
- Y.N. Harari on nonconscious future beings
- Leon Wieseltier on the future of the humanities
- E.O. Wilson on mass extinctions

And ponder such topics as:

- Robotic warfare of the future
- Car-less cities
- A landmine-free world
- Politically correct operas
- Banning laptops in the classroom
- Human-centered design (not machine-driven)
- Art museums of the future
- Democratizing the U.S. Supreme Court
- Is multitasking really bad?

Don’t Miss Out!

Act Now! Fill out the attached form with your preferred method of payment, and send back the prepaid envelope to secure your commemorative 250th Anniversary book from Encyclopædia Britannica!
Part I: Evolving Knowledge
Read classic entries since 1768, covering such topics as:

- Fake News
  American Style (1830)

- America & Russia
  Destined to Lead the World (1815)

- Vampire
  How to Become One (1875)

- Anti-Semitism
  Predicting a Dire Future (1910)

- Unicorns
  Where to Find Them (1801)

- Flying
  Where’s My Wings?! (1778)

- Noah’s Ark
  Where Was the Kitchen? (1788)

- Bachelors
  Fine Them! Tax Them! (1788)

- Where’s California?
  “California, a large country of the West Indies…. It is uncertain whether it be a peninsula or an island.” — Encyclopædia Britannica, 1768

- Ban Golf!
  “For there are statutes prohibiting it as early as the year 1457, lest it should interfere with the sport of archery.” — Encyclopædia Britannica, 1788

Part II: Classic Voices
Read classic entries from classic contributors, including:

- War & Peace:
  - Eleanor Roosevelt & Madame Chiang Kai-shek on their husbands
  - James McPherson on the U.S. Civil War
  - Máiread Maguire on the Peace People of Ireland

- History:
  - Jacques Barzun on history
  - Joseph Ellis on the Founding Fathers
  - Leon Trotsky on Vladimir Lenin

- Places:
  - Adam Gopnik on America
  - Ian Rankin on Edinburgh
  - Shirley Hazzard on Naples

- The World Scene:
  - Desmond Tutu on apartheid
  - Indira Gandhi on global understanding
  - Jimmy Carter on the Camp David Accords

- Science & Technology:
  - Albert Einstein on space and time
  - Carl Sagan on extraterrestrials
  - Neil deGrasse Tyson on accessible science
  - Henry Ford on mass production
  - Sigmund Freud on psychoanalysis
  - Marie Curie on radium

- Sports:
  - Arnold Palmer on the Masters Tournament of golf
  - Colin Montgomerie on the Open Championship of golf
  - Chris Evert on the U.S. Open of tennis
  - Walter Camp on inventing American football
  - James Naismith on inventing basketball

WHERE’S CALIFORNIA?
"California, a large country of the West Indies…. It is uncertain whether it be a peninsula or an island.” — Encyclopædia Britannica, 1768

BAN GOLF!
“For there are statutes prohibiting it as early as the year 1457, lest it should interfere with the sport of archery.” — Encyclopædia Britannica, 1788
250 Years Ago...
There was no United States
No telephones, electricity, railroads, or cars
No “Australia,” “Neptune,” “Uranus,” or “Pluto”
But one entity was thriving and still thrives today...

WHERE'S CALIFORNIA?
"California, a large country of the West Indies.... It is uncertain whether it be a peninsula or an island." — Encyclopædia Britannica, 1768

Part I: Evolving Knowledge
Read classic entries since 1768, covering such topics as:

Fake News
American Style (1830)

America & Russia
Destined to Lead the World (1815)

Vampire
How to Become One (1875)

Anti-Semitism
Predicting a Dire Future (1910)

Unicorns
Where to Find Them (1801)

Flying
Where's My Wings?! (1778)

Noah's Ark
Where Was the Kitchen? (1788)

Bachelors
Fine Them! Tax Them! (1788)

BAN GOLF!
“For there are statutes prohibiting it as early as the year 1457, lest it should interfere with the sport of archery.” — Encyclopædia Britannica, 1788

WHERE'S CALIFORNIA?
“California, a large country of the West Indies.... It is uncertain whether it be a peninsula or an island.” — Encyclopædia Britannica, 1768

Part II: Classic Voices
Read classic entries from classic contributors, including:

History
• Jacques Barzun on history
• Joseph Ellis on the Founding Fathers
• Leon Trotsky on Vladimir Lenin

Places
• Adam Gopnik on America
• Ian Rankin on Edinburgh
• Shirley Hazzard on Naples

The World Scene
• Desmond Tutu on apartheid
• Indira Gandhi on global understanding
• Jimmy Carter on the Camp David Accords

War & Peace:
• Eleanor Roosevelt & Madame Chiang Kai-shek on their husbands
• James McPherson on the U.S. Civil War
• Mairéad Maguire on the Peace People of Ireland

Science & Technology
• Albert Einstein on space and time
• Carl Sagan on extraterrestrials
• Neil deGrasse Tyson on accessible science
• Henry Ford on mass production
• Sigmund Freud on psychoanalysis
• Marie Curie on radium

Sports:
• Arnold Palmer on the Masters Tournament of golf
• Colin Montgomery on the Open Championship of golf
• Chris Evert on the U.S. Open of tennis
• Walter Camp on inventing American football
• James Naismith on inventing basketball

Film & Pop Culture
Part III: Issues of Today, Visions of Tomorrow

Read the concerns of such luminaries as:

- Martin Scorsese on film preservation
- Garry Kasparov on artificial intelligence and Russia
- The Archbishop of Canterbury on Christendom
- U.S. Secretary of State Madeleine Albright on the world scene
- U.S. Secretary of State James Baker on world stability
- Henry Louis Gates, Jr., on the Confederate past
- Lewis Lapham on “typographical man”
- Y. N. Harari on nonconscious future beings
- Leon Wiesel on the future of the humanities
- E. O. Wilson on mass extinctions

And ponder such topics as:

- Robotic warfare of the future
- Car-less cities
- A landmine-free world
- Politically correct operas
- Banning laptops in the classroom
- Human-centered design (not machine-driven)
- Art museums of the future
- Democratizing the U.S. Supreme Court
- Is multitasking really bad?